Work already being done that can be shown to support development of Fundamental British Values as part of the Personal Development, Behaviour and Welfare framework ...

Individual Liberty

Learners ability to achieve in relevant additional qualifications or extra-curricular opportunities to increase future employability

Develop opportunities for learners to know how to keep themselves fit and healthy, both physically and emotionally.

Opportunities to develop personal, social and employability skills; including English, maths and ICT-appreciating the importance of these skills in context of their progression and career aims.

Opportunities for students to develop independent skills vital to future development through participation in distance learning activities, including the use of a VLE.

Enable learners to acquire a broad general knowledge of and respect for public institutions and services in the UK.

Learners use information received on a full range of relevant career pathways to develop challenging and realistic career plans

Encourage learners to take pride in their work and achievements

Purposeful and relevant work experience Attitude to learning; attendance and punctuality

Students understand rights and responsibilities as a learner

Opportunities for learners to understand and participate in a democratic process

Develop a culture to promote all aspects of a learners' welfare, so that students understand how to keep not only themselves but others safe in different situations and settings.

Crafted learning programmes, including enrichment activities, allowing learners to explore personal, social and ethical issues Feeling safe and knowing where to get help. and the confidence that those concerns are taken seriously and followed through appropriately

Democracy

Rule of Law

Mutual Respect and Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

Mark Gomersall, 2016